Dear Parents,

The Hon'ble High Court of Calcutta in its pronouncement dated October 13, 2020 had directed inter-alia that by November 30, 2020, the fees payable for the period up to November 30, 2020 (i.e. 80% of fees for the period April 1, 2020 to November 30, 2020) should be tendered on behalf of all students.

In compliance with the order, the school had issued a detailed circular regarding the revised fee schedule after providing for the waivers as directed by the Hon'ble High Court along with the mode of payment.

As per our school records, the school Fees up to November 2020 (in part / whole) in respect of your ward remains outstanding.

The Hon'ble High Court of Calcutta in its order has stated that with effect from December 8, 2020 the school will be entitled to disallow students whose fees have not been paid and the concerned student will not be entitled to attend school in any mode and will be denied all facilities being offered by the school.

In case of any doubt, kindly contact the school office immediately to be advised about the amount that needs to be paid to the school so that the school is not constrained to take such a step with respect to your ward due to non-payment of fees.
